

God has invited you to his table and provided you with His grace and mercy. Write on the plate all the ways God has shown you His kindness. As you write, pray and thank God for His love and mercy

God wants us to invite others to His table as well. Write the names of those who you can pray for who need to know God's love and kindness:

---